WORK EXPERIENCE

Builders Academy

2025 - In Progress

In this case, they contacted me to boost their academy and reach more potential customers for their course. To achieve this, I designed a marketing campaign that significantly exceeded the numbers from previous months.

Innovaia

2023 - 2024

On this occasion, the client mentioned that their social media was at a low point. After a thorough analysis, I presented them with a solid proposal, which involved completely changing the focus of their social media while highlighting the hidden potential of their project.

HypeProductions

2022 - In Progress

This is my freelance organization, which works with a highly important client portfolio in the social media industry. As the director, I manage different teams to achieve the goals set by companies and organizations.
